

Approach to Learning Grades – Descriptors

	Outstanding	Good	Developing	Unsatisfactory
Preparation for Learning	This pupil brings more than the required equipment to lessons and therefore their preparation for learning is outstanding.	This pupil brings the required equipment to lessons and therefore their preparation for learning is good.	This pupil does not always bring the required equipment to their lessons and therefore their preparation for learning is inconsistent.	This pupil rarely brings the required equipment for lessons and therefore their preparation for learning is unsatisfactory.
Commitment to Learning	This pupil puts in the maximum amount of effort into their lessons and classwork, taking every opportunity to further their learning, and therefore demonstrates an outstanding commitment to their learning.	This pupil puts in a good amount of effort into their lessons and classwork, taking opportunities to further their learning, and therefore demonstrates a good commitment to their learning.	This pupil does not always put in the expected effort into their lessons and classwork, and misses opportunities to further their learning, and therefore demonstrates an inconsistent commitment to their learning.	This pupil shows a lack of commitment to their learning by putting in minimal effort to their lessons and class work, and rarely takes an opportunity to further their learning, and therefore demonstrates an unsatisfactory commitment to their learning.
Involvement in Learning	This pupil consistently contributes to class discussions and regularly offers verbal answers in lessons, and therefore demonstrates an outstanding involvement in their learning.	This pupil contributes to class discussions and offers verbal answers in lessons, and therefore demonstrates a good involvement in their learning.	This pupil can contribute to class discussions and offer verbal answers when prompted to in lesson, and therefore demonstrates a developing involvement in their lessons.	This pupil refuses to contribute to class discussions or offer verbal answers even when asked, and therefore demonstrates an unsatisfactory involvement in their lessons.
Behaviours for Learning	This pupil demonstrates consistently outstanding and positive behaviours in lessons that significantly contribute to a positive atmosphere of learning allowing all to achieve their best.	This pupil demonstrates consistently good and positive behaviours in lessons that contribute to a positive atmosphere of learning where everyone has the opportunity to learn.	This pupil demonstrates inconsistent behaviours in lessons that, at times, can contribute to a negative atmosphere of learning that can disrupt the learning of others.	This pupil consistently demonstrates unsatisfactory behaviours in lessons that regularly contributes to a negative atmosphere of learning and regularly disrupts the learning of others.
Learning at Home	This pupil demonstrates an outstanding attitude to learning at home by completing all home learning set.	This pupil demonstrates a good attitude to learning at home by completing the vast majority of home learning set.	This pupil demonstrates an inconsistent attitude to learning at home by only completing some of the home learning set.	This pupil demonstrates an unsatisfactory attitude to learning at home by not completing home learning set.